PETITIONING THE COURT

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

6 Standard Condition # 8: You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: On July 25, 2017, Pamela Hawkes signed her conditions of supervision, indicating she understood all conditions as ordered by the Court. Specifically, Ms. Hawkes was made aware by her U.S. probation officer that she was prohibited from associating with someone she knows has been convicted of a felony.

On June 11, 2018, the offender notified the undersigned officer she had violated standard condition number 8 by communicating with her former codefendant, Steven Bronowski, without first obtaining permission to do so. Ms. Hawkes advised this officer she had been contacted by Mr. Bronowski approximately 2 months prior, shortly after his release from incarceration for a state charge. According to the offender, she and Mr. Bronowski “hung

Special Condition # 4: You shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated by a licensed/certified treatment provider, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, which could include inpatient treatment and aftercare upon further order of the court. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay. You must allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising officer and treatment provider.

Supporting Evidence: On July 25, 2017, Pamela Hawkes signed her conditions of supervision, indicating she understood all conditions as ordered by the Court. Specifically, Ms. Hawkes was made aware by her U.S. probation officer that she needed to enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program.

On or about June 11, 2018, Ms. Hawkes violated special condition number 4 by being unsuccessfully discharged from treatment. On that date, the undersigned officer received notification from the offender’s counselor at Pioneer Human Services that Ms. Hawkes had been unsuccessfully discharged from treatment as a result of her failure to attend treatment between April 24 and June 11, 2018.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to issue a summons and to incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on 03/08/2018.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
